Changes in Gränges' Group Management

Gränges has appointed Sofia Hedevåg, currently SVP Sustainability at Gränges AB, to be a member of Gränges' Group Management and report to CEO Johan Menckel. Sofia has since 15 May 2020 been a member of Gränges' extended Group Management.

SVP Corporate Responsibility & Communication, Camilla Weiner, who has been a member of Gränges' Group Management since 2019, has informed that she will leave Gränges to continue with assignments in her own business.

The changes above will be effectuated from 1 April 2021.

"We have created a new position in Gränges' Group Management with a global responsibility for sustainability, a very important strategic area for Gränges. By including the SVP Sustainability in Group Management, we broaden management's competence and focus further to meet the increased interest and demand from our customers and other stakeholders. I am convinced that Sofia will continue to contribute in a very good way to Gränges' strategic development and long-term competitiveness. I would also like to take the opportunity to thank Camilla for her strong commitment as well as valuable and good efforts and wish her good luck", says Johan Menckel, CEO Gränges AB.
