Gränges wins investor relations award

Gränges has been named best Mid Cap Company in Regi's annual ranking of listed companies' investor relations activities. This year's ranking includes some 20 criteria, from annual reports and websites to personal relationships and the degree of trust enjoyed by top management. The criteria were rated by sell side analysts who actively follow the company.

"We're very proud to have received this award. Financial communication is strategically important in improving understanding and knowledge of Gränges' operations, and to ensure a fair valuation. This award is also an incentive for us to continue to develop our communication," says Pernilla Grennfelt, Director Communications & IR for Gränges.

This year's IR Nordic Market includes 129 companies listed in the Nordics. It is the first time that Gränges, which listed two years ago, took part in the evaluation.
