Gränges awarded for best Interim Report

Gränges has been awarded for Best Interim Report 2015 in the competition Listed Company of the Year on Nasdaq Stockholm, organized by Kanton and Aktiespararna. Gränges was listed in October 2014, and it is the first year the company participates in the competition.

Kanton and Aktiespararna motivate the award:

"The company's interim report is efficiently structured and comprehensive. It is characterized by high ambitions regarding financial and operational data. Good pedagogics means that it is worth reading for all categories of investors. A well written and interesting section on business concept, business model and strategies are a great introduction to the company."

Kanton and Aktiespararna ranks the financial information of all listed companies on Nasdaq Stockholm every year and the winner is awarded Listed Company of the Year. The ranking is made up of the three categories Best Interim Report, Best IR Website and Best Annual Report.
